

Definitions of Reverse Classroom related to NPD

- Facilitate
- Adult learning principle for involvement
- Active vs passive learning
- Higher level of learning with active participation
- More able to apply at practice level
- Richer learning opportunities
- Assess learning real time

Flipped Classroom promotes: active learning, self- directed inquiry, student centered instruction using constructivist theory, allows the facilitator to assess learning real time to provide richer learning opportunities.

Courses that might be considered for Reverse Classroom:

- AHA BLS/ACLS online with “live” class add on
- Precepting with simulation
- Respiratory system learning
- Cardiac system
- Skin care
- End of life care
- Evolving case study
- Journal club/follow blog
- Leadership development
- PCA learning